

I hope the FCC will oppose further media consolidation. The stark difference between American and world-wide opinion on "pre-emptive wars" shows that the unity of our US media has already led the nation astray. More of the same will lead us from barbarity to madness. Should the son of General Colin Powell lead the FCC to facilitate more war propaganda, it will DEFINE corruption in future accounts of our era.